WORSHIP MATTERS

Message Series June 3 - 24

For many years, churches have been plagued with worship wars that divide the unity of the church and hinder the worship of God's people. Whether our musical preference is traditional or contemporary, it is time to return to biblical worship. Join us over the next four weeks as we examine what the Bible has to say about worshiping with our head and heart, worshiping vertically and horizontally, worship that is planned and spontaneous and worship that is both an event and everyday.
